A Message from Our Exalted Ruler

Hello all,
 I was accompanied by Fernando Escobedo, Jill Callaway, and Rich Ochs to the Spring Convention held May 18-20 in Riverton. We had a great time seeing old friends and watching the new State Officers being installed in their new positions. Our Grand Sponsor Dwayne Rumney also spoke to us on how the Elk's Statutes were first formed. They were voted on by the members just like we do today. He stressed how important it is to follow all the statutes, as this is the foundation of our Order. We need to always remember this especially when voting on matters which Grand Lodge has advised against it. Reminder June 14th is Flag Day and we will once again be performing the Ritual in the Town Square (weather permitting) along with the Jackson Boy Scouts. Come out and support us, it is a great lesson in history. Hope to see you all there!

Exalted Ruler Lisa Sprague

- Lisa

ELK DROPPINGS

Nuggets of Knowledge for Curious Elks

The Elks originally borrowed a number of rituals from the Freemasons, including degrees of membership, a ceremonial apron, secret password, badges, and a secret handshake. These were all abandoned, however, by 1904.
