A Message from your Exalted Ruler

Members All,

Well, here goes my first article as your new ER for 2018-2019 year.

First off I would like to say thank you to the Extreme girls for their help during the Installation dinner. Next watch your calendars for upcoming events as we have some great ideas for the coming months. Thanks to Annette, Ron and Tim for all the work you have done in the past months. I want to thank the new officers for their enthusiasm for this year. I especially want to thank the members for their confidence and support. Remember, this is your Lodge. Support it and become involved. The officers and I look forward to seeing more of you in the future. I'll close for now as I don't know how much room there is in the newsletter, plus I have been told by some members I can be long winded. You know who you are. I hope May and June are good months for you all.

Fraternally,
Gary Hinesley, ER

A Chukkle or Two from McGoo

It has been quite a while since you've had to endure this column in our news bulletin, so I hope you will enjoy this offering and maybe let someone know.

I've mentioned before in this space our friend, Cookie Baker. She is an elderly Grandmother who recently went on an Alaskan Cruise with her son's family. While on the cruise, Cookie met Ethel, another elderly lady, and they developed quite a friendship. Ethel was a bit senile but sweet as could be. Cookie and her were sitting on the lounge chairs on the deck reading and soaking up the sunlight. Cookie said, "You know, Ethel, I've been reading this 'Sex and Marriage' book and all they talk about is 'mutual orgasm.' 'Mutual orgasm' here and 'mutual orgasm' there. Tell me, Ethel, when your husband was alive, did you two ever have mutual orgasm?"

Ethel thought for a long while. Finally, she shook her head and said, "No, I think we had State Farm.

"While on the subject of Cookie Baker, her grandson, Kurt N. Klimber, is the subject of many of Cookie's stories. While he was in kindergarten an assignment was to create a picture with crayons. The Teacher would occasionally walk around to see each child's work. When she got to Kurt's desk, he was working diligently. She asked what the drawing was. Kurt replied, "I'm drawing God.

"The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without missing a beat, or looking up from his drawing, little Kurt replied, "They will in a minute.

"Well with that, I had better close for this time. I'll leave you with this thought. Why do they lock filling station rest rooms, are they afraid someone might clean them?"

From the Desk of the Secretary

First I want to thank everyone for their recent support during my absence the last couple of months. Thank you to all that have paid their 18-19 dues already. We are over 80% paid up and it's only May 1st. Keep it up and I hope to hear from the rest of you soon.

Please remember you can always contact me for anything. If you have questions, issues with your door card, membership or any other questions about the Elks at all you can reach me by email, CheyenneElks2017@gmail.com or Lodge 307-514-5717, my cell at 307-421-4173.

Drop Time Lounge News

Wow, did Dan and Shane put on an amazing St. Patrick's Day meal! Everyone enjoyed the amazing food and their green beer. Congratulations to the newly elected officer's. We had an amazing turnout for the Installation dinner and we would like to thank the Cheyenne Extreme Girls for helping with the serving and clean up. I also couldn't have done it without the help of Robert, Gil, Debbie and Linda! Thank you all for your continued help and support! With summer coming around the corner (we hope) we are going to discontinue Monday night meals but will have appetizers and drink specials to replace. Come on down for some munchies and play some cards on Monday nights. They are playing cribbage, but there has been talk on getting some pinochle games going!!

Bowling is over but Thursday night Buy One Get One (BOGO) will continue.

The Officer's Mother's Day Brunch is a go so bring all the amazing Mom's down for an awesome brunch, 10 am -1 pm, with drink specials! We don't want to forget the Dad's, so we will also be having a Bacon Extravaganza for Father's Day and drink specials also!

Continue to watch our bulletin boards around the Club for more information on upcoming events and any special functions. Our members continue to be the heart and soul of our Lodge, and your continued support shows that and is greatly appreciated.
