Veterans Auction

Now that fall has come to us here in Cody we are starting our hides program for the year. I hope everyone has had been successful with your hunting endeavors. Remember us when you are deciding what to do with the hides from your deer or elk. We can accept full deer hides, and half or full elk hides. Hides can be deposited in the barrel at the back of the lodge.

With November here we are also holding our annual white elephant auction to help support the veteran hospitals. Feel free to bring any donations to the lodge. We do ask that donations be in good condition. It can be an item of value you no longer need or a newly purchased item. You can get together with friends and all chip in to get something really nice, something that you would want! The idea is... NO JUNK.

We will be having a steak dinner before the auction. All vets receive free dinner that night. So please come out and help us make this event as successful as it has been in the past.

Thank you again for your generous support of our lodge charities. If you have any questions, please call or text me, in the evenings, at 307-899-1550

Exalted Ruler's Message

Members all!

I'd like to pass on an update on the Fall Festival; $2800 was raised for cancer on that a cold day. Thanks so much to those who donated time and money for a good cause.

The state Soccer Shoot-out was Saturday, October 27, in Casper. Cody had a good turn out and each of our team members brought home trophies.

The lodge's annual White Elephant Auction will be November 9th. Start planning what you, or your group of friends, want to donate to the auction. Remember, only donate quality items, please, no strings of old Christmas tree lights and such. Baked goods are always a welcome addition!

The lodge will be closed on Thanksgiving.

There are still raffle tickets for the Traeger Grill available. Let's get Larry Baker out to Oregon to train with his dog.

Lastly, if you have any spare time that could be donated to the lodge, we need Bingo callers or you might check with our Loyal Knight, Jesse Williams, if you like to cook.

Fraternally yours,
Patrick Hardage
Exalted Ruler

Does DROP-PENS

Does Drove #29 November, 2018

The weather has cooled, the leaves are falling, and another busy year is about to come to an end. The good news is the holidays are approaching and that brings many fond memories of family, fun, and counting our blessings.

The Cody Does have a very special fundraiser coming up very soon. Our fellow Doe, Charlie Stickney has made a beautiful wine rack which will be raffled off in December. The exact date will be announced soon. Look for posters at the Lodge. The tickets are available from any Doe. The cost is $5 a ticket, and the proceeds are to benefit the Cody Senior Center. This beautiful wine rack is made from butternut wood, comes with wine glasses, wine, and a beautiful wine bottle opener. Our thanks to Charlie and the other Does who have donated the wine and accompanying items. This beautiful piece is on display at the Lodge.

November is the month for nomination of officers. Put on your thinking caps and think of someone who would add to the success of our Drove. Better yet, consider being an officer yourself! We are always looking for new members. Ladies and gentlemen are eligible for membership.

Our next meeting is on Saturday, November 17th at 11:15 a.m. at the Irma Hotel. Hope to see you there!

Happy Birthday to our November Birthday folks: Dorothy DeBerg, Billie Rice, Gloria Schmitt, and Rose Simoneau.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO EVERYONE! STAY SAFE OUT THERE.

Fraternally,
Barbara Gast, Counselor
