A Message from your Exalted Ruler

Members All,

Since this is the last one of these I will ever do, I think I will have a little fun. I hope everyone enjoyed their Christmas and New Year's and that this new year will bring you everything you wanted. I want to thank Jody and Lisa and all their help for putting on one of the best bowling tournaments in recent years. That's not saying that the past ones haven't been great but they did bring in more teams and everyone seemed to have a great time. Robert and his crew did an excellent job on the prime rib and the suppers were amazing. Even though the Super Bowl game was a waste of time, the activities at the Lodge kept a lot of people entertained. The shuffleboard and corn hole tournaments were very well-attended and enjoyed.

I want to thank this past year's officers for making this year very easy. We accomplished a lot this year. I hope we built a good foundation for the future officers to build on. I wish the coming year's officers all the best and want to let them know that even though I won't be involved in any form, I'll still be available for help. The advice might not be too good, but I'll be around.

As I said before, thank you all for making this year great and I wish nothing but the best for the Elks in the coming years.

Fraternally,

Gary Hinesley, PERx4

A Chuckle or Two from McGoo

We were visiting with our Minister friend, ole Readin Psalms, and he told us a story related to him by his Catholic Priest friend...

A young woman enters a confessional and relates her offenses to the Priest. After she has finished, they have a brief conversation during which, the Priest asks her if she has a job. She replies, "Yes, I'm a Gyno-hypogymnologist." This totally confuses the Priest and he confesses to her that he has no idea what that might be. She says, "I'll step outside the confessional and show you." She exits, then goes through several complicated acrobatic gyrations while the Priest watches. While he was watching the girl, he overheard two elderly women who had been watching her as well. One says to the other, "Ain't no way I'm going in that confessional. The Priest's penance is way too severe."

I got a bunch of these shorts from a dear friend at our Church and thought I might share a few with you...

I just read that 4,153,237 people got married last year. I don't mean to cause any trouble but shouldn't that be an even number?

Today a man knocked on my door and asked for a small donation towards the new local swimming pool ... I gave him a glass of water.

I want to die peacefully in my sleep, like my grandfather. Not screaming and yelling like the passengers riding with him in his car.

If I had a dollar for every girl that found me unattractive, they would eventually find me attractive.

I find it ironic that the colors red, white, and blue stand for freedom until they are flashing behind you.

A recent study has found that women who carry a little extra weight, live longer than the men who mention it.

With that, I will close for this issue. Hope you all have all you could ever hope for and suffer from eternal happiness.

From the Desk of the Secretary

Well happy Spring everyone,

Your 2019-20 dues notices have been mailed and you should have them by now. Please pay when you can but by March 31st. We have many things on the horizon for the coming months. Stay informed better by signing up for email notifications. Please sign the form if you received one with your dues notice and return with your dues.

Remember, even if you don't come to the Lodge very often your dues helps support over 25 different charities and groups around town every year.

Remember we will be voting on some building improvements at the March 20th meeting.

Do we have writers in our membership? We have several Grants each year that we could use your help in acquiring. Contact me if you can help.

As always email or call me about any questions or concerns you have and I will try to help,

Ron Newnum, Secretary
