A Message from your Exalted Ruler

Members All,

I want to start by thanking everyone for their support and trust by electing me Exalted Ruler. I am looking forward to a great year at the Lodge. We have welcomed many new members who are excited about becoming active in the Lodge so come down and get to know them.

Many events in next two months: By the time you get this we will have awarded the Central High R.O.T.C Commandant their annual Saber. This is the 86th year that the Cheyenne Elks have done this. On May 11th we will be participating in the local M.S. walk, if interested in getting involved see note in this bulletin. Mother's Day Brunch, Flag Day Ceremony and more so please check calendar and plan to attend or participate. Last we are always looking for more people to help cook different meals. If interested please contact Jim Robinson, Club Manager for information.

Fraternally,

Randy Moss, 2019-2020 Exalted Ruler

A Chuckle or Two from McGoo

We had a chance to visit awhile with ole Reedin Salms our Minister friend. He has a best friend that he grew up with that became a Catholic Priest. I kind of thought that was a bit strange, two kids grow up together and both become Clergy but in very different venues. Anyhow, Reedin told us a couple of rib-ticklers...

A young woman had entered his confessional and related her offenses, after which they had a brief conversation. When asked what she did for a living she answered,

"I'm a gyno-hypo-gymnologist."

The poor Priest is totally confused with that so the young lady says, "I'll step outside the confessional and do a demonstration for you."

She exits and then goes through several acrobatic gyrations while the Priest watches.

As she is returning to the confessional the Priest overheard an elderly lady saying to her elderly friend, "Ain't no way I'm going into that confessional, that Priest's penance is way too severe."

Reedin told us one more that just about caused me to erupt coffee out of my nose...

An elderly and quite disheveled gent entered the confessional and after quite a while of total silence, the Priest asked, "Can I be of help to you?"

The old fellow just responded, "Yeah, buddy, Ya got any toilet paper in your stall?"

That story reminded me of when ole Tippin D'Bottal, the Pine Bluffs town drunk, went ice fishing. He was chipping away at the ice to make his fishing hole when he hears this booming voice, from somewhere up above him, say, "There are no fish in there."

A little awestruck, ole Tippin asks, "Are you God?"

The voice replies, "No, I'm the manager of this ice rink."

With that, I will close for this time. I will leave you with this thought... To those of you that believe in psycho-kinesis, raise my hand.

From the Desk of the Secretary

First many thanks to all that have paid their 19-20 Dues already and for those that signed up for email communications. Next request is for everyone to get an Elk.org account. It contains many articles about what the Elks do and help with around the country. It will help all of us going forward with different things.

New feature; we now have the capability of loading Emergency / Additional Contact information for a member. If you wish to add someone please don't hesitate to contact me. This might help us if you move or we lose touch with you because any other reason. Strictly voluntary!!

Also we have a great new Flag Pole in front of our building and would like to thank all of those that donated money toward its replacement.

Lastly, something to think about. We have almost 40 members with 50 years or more as members. We are planning a special party for all of them on August 25th as part of our annual Picnic. Details will follow but mark the date on your calendars and please plan to attend.

As always you may contact me for any issues or questions. CheyenneElks201@gmail.com

Your Brother Elk,

Ron Newnum, Secretary

Drop Time Lounge News

Well here we are at the start of a new Fraternal Year. Hope everyone has weathered the last two snow storms with minimal amount of trouble. It's sorry and sad to say we will be raising meal and bar prices as soon as May 1st. We are also always looking for people to volunteer to help with providing our Dinners. If you are willing please contact Exalter Ruler Randy Moss, Activities Chairperson Robert Loghry, or me the Club Manager.
